About the product:

Premium wrapped canvas is my favorite medium for printing images for display. They are lightweight, easy to hang, no problem with reflective glare, and with the wrapped image, there is a sense of the third dimension - 3-D.

About the print:

Great printing job - good balance between highlight and shadows. Hi-res image held the detail of the birds in flight.

About the product:

I am 100% satisfied with our wrapped canvas print. It arrived in great condition, well wrapped and no damaged corners. I actually ordered it to put in a frame so I got the thinnest stretcher but you will be happy with the look if you just want the wrapped canvas on your wall. Appreciate the hanging wire on the back too.

About the print:

I feel the printing is high quality and really true to color - the photo looked exactly as I anticipated. We did start with a really good, high res photo taken by our professional photographer (yes we had license to print, make sure you do!), so be aware you are only going to get a print as quality as your image. Texture is perfect too - I have seen others that look like a printed photo heat applied to canvas to get the texture, this is not that style! Actually printed on the canvas, gives you a nice soft texture compared to photo paper but keeps the colors vibrant.

About the product:

This was a gift and it was amazing. Everyone thought it was store bought but it was a custom picture turned into canvas. I was amazed at how good it came out. Now everyone wants one. I stared at it for 2 weeks because I couldn't believe how great it turned out.

About the print:

Fantastic. Better than I imagined. I was worried the colors and textures in the photo wouldn't come out on canvas and well they did. Just WOW. Everyone including me is just amazed. Really WOW. I truly did not think it would look this good.
